Danny Champion of the World

Tring Youth Theatre Project (TYTP)

19th November to 22nd November 2025

TICKETS: From £8.00

RUNNING TIME: 115 mins

AGE RATING: Suitable for all ages

Tring Youth Theatre Project exists to nurture young talent, encourage performance, build confidence and stimulate an interest in the magic of theatre. Based at The Dembe Theatre at Pendley, we stage musicals and plays for young performers aged 8 to 22, as well as host an annual live music festival, TringFest, showcasing local youth bands.

Danny the Champion of the World

Step into the heart-warming world of Roald Dahl's Danny the Champion of the World in this enchanting stage production by Tring Youth Theatre Project! Full of charm, mischief, and adventure, this beloved story celebrates the special bond between parent and child, the magic of discovery, and the thrill of daring to dream big.

Audiences of all ages will be swept up in Dahl's trademark wit and wonder as Danny's world unfolds with humour, heart, and plenty of surprises. Perfect for families and fans of timeless storytelling, this production promises an unforgettable evening at the theatre where courage, love, and a little mischief prove to be truly champion-worthy.
