Home/School/Child Agreement

Staff at Long Marston feel very fortunate to have active, supportive parents and know that the children benefit from this relationship in many ways. With this in mind, this document underpins the positive relationships that exist between home and school.

Home—School – Child—Agreement

Long Marston School

As parents/guardians, we will:

- Encourage your child to actively participate in school life
- Support the school's policies and guidelines for behaviour
- Let the school know, in a supportive manner, of any concerns or problems that may affect your child's work, health or behaviour
- Help your child with homework and support other opportunities for home learning
- Ensure your child attends school daily, arriving by 8.45a.m., except in exceptional circumstances or illness, and we will not remove them for holidays during term time
- Work with the school in supporting the school uniform policy and naming all belongings
- Attend parents' evenings and discussions about your child's progress
- Ensure that your child is equipped for school each day with relevant equipment including home school link book, reading book and wearing PE kit on the correct days
- Stay in touch with the school by reading appropriate emails and letters
- Support the school by encouraging a positive social, moral, spiritual and cultural attitude

The School will:

- Make school life fun and enjoyable
- Provide a balanced curriculum and meet the needs of your child
- Achieve high standards of work and behaviour through a stimulating and challenging learning environment
- Care for your child's safety and happiness
- Endeavour to develop your child's potential as a valued member of the school community
- Teach your children to care about others
- Provide information about your child's timetable and curriculum
- Keep the family informed through regular newsletters, parent consultation evenings, parent workshops and an annual report as well as through the school website.
- Provide a Christian ethos in which our children will grow
- Regularly check the home/school link book or alternative means of communication (email / Boom reader app) for communication from home
- Let you know of any concerns that we have
